

McClarín Plastics honored by Rendell

Gov. Ed Rendell recognized Hanover-based McClarin Plastics for participation in workforce development programs and for providing job training and education services.

McClarín Plastics was one of 14 employers and educational institutions recognized.

The governor's Workforce Development Awards were presented May 10 at the 23rd annual Pennsylvania Partners Employment, Training & Education Conference at the Hershey Lodge and Convention Center.

The awards were sponsored by the state departments of Aging, Education, Labor & Industry and Public Welfare, as well as the Pennsylvania Partners.
